A blood donation camp was organized by Red Cross Society in association with Rotary Club, Sadashivnagar, Bangalore. on 26th July from 9:30 am to 3:00 pm at Acharya Pathasala College of Commerce, Basvangudi. The event was an initiative by IQAC and the College Youth Red Cross wing along with NSS and NCC hosted the event.

The main purpose of this event was to create awareness regarding regular blood donation among the students, it was very well planned and many students and faculties voluntarily participated in this noble cause. A team of 2 Doctors and 15 nurses were present at the location.

Sri Krishnakanth, IPS Officer, DCP-Law and order Bangalore South was the Chief Guest and he gave an awareness speech on the legal implications of Cyber Law, Drug consumption, and a crime against women. He also cautioned Students about this kind of crime and its impact. The 1st set of persons to donate blood was Mr.Manjunath D U, 4th Sem, Mr. Prashanth of 2nd Semester Mr. Rahul Gowda J of 4th Semester, and Mr. Basvaraj of 6th Semester. More than 150 students volunteered to donate blood with beaming faces and proud hearts, but only 111 units could be collected to the eligibility criteria. Refreshment was provided to volunteers and organizers before the event and after the donation of blood to each donor. A certificate of Appreciation was given to each donor as a token of gratitude.

As the end of the event was approaching there was a sense of satisfaction on the faces of volunteers as a total of 111 units of blood was collected. The principal handed out the unit of blood to the Red Cross Society and appreciated all those who were involved and participated in the camp and making it a huge success.
